Prison Visit Rankles Lawmaker

State Senator H. L. "Bill" Richardson did recently what some of us urged him to do.

He made a surprise visit to one of the state prison facilities he had long criticized.

Last week he made an early morning visit to Tehachapi. He had complained about the permissive atmosphere at the state minimum security facility. If the visit did anything for the lawmaker, it made him less satisfied with the system. Let him tell about it.

"The facility is filthy, the inmates are dressed in a slovenly manner and extremely unkempt. Staircases haven't been swept in weeks, garbage is piled up and trash cans are over-filled. Pop bottle caps, pop tops from cans, empty cans, cigarette butts, candy wrappers and waste paper are strewn around the yard and under the bushes.

The walls are grimy, paint is chipped, and bathrooms have weeks of built up grime. Even with all filth underfoot, it is a country club setting with inmates working out on bar bells and playing around on the golf course.

"Inmates are allowed to keep and wear street clothes, and it is possible that the two escapees who escaped last week had their own sport shirts hidden underneath the work dungarees they are supposed to wear," he continued.

"The beds are unmade, pornographic pictures are allowed to be kept on the walls in individual cells. Some of the cells are even equipped with private stereos.

"Tehachapi is reported to be the country club of our prisons and I can understand why, with the beautiful scenery, recreation, three square meals a day, minimum security, no discipline, and no work ethic.

The security on visitors is also so minimal, it is not surprising that narcotics present a real problem. It is no wonder that inmates released from the institution return to crime and have no fear of incarceration. They dislike only the inconvenience it causes.

"I spoke to a number of inmates and they are extremely sullen and their morale is at a low ebb. Criminals cannot be put in lax security surroundings, given time to lollygag around and enjoy recreation without creating chaos. The fault lies with those administering our penal institutions. We no longer have law enforcement oriented personnel running our prisons. The upper management is of social worker do-gooder mentality, incapable of handling or managing the facilities. With these lax conditions it is no wonder that more than sixty people died inside the penal facilities in the past two years," he said.

Richardson has long been convinced that the public is being used as a test tube for social experiments on criminals. Unfortunately, it is the law-abiding citizen who pays the bill in dollars and suffering.

He recommends only two hard alternatives for adults who commit crimes — "work outside the prison or work inside — take a choice. Commit more than two felonies and prison will be your address for the rest of your life." That's meaningful dialogue to an adult.

Richardson admits that it is rewarding to see a change in criminal attitudes but termination of criminal behavior is the desired end result.

His overriding philosophy is that a criminal must learn that he will earn a penalty for wrongdoing — and expect it just as a wage earner expects his pay come payday.

"If the criminally inclined does commit another felony, prison bars serves another valuable function: if the criminal is behind bars, he can no longer rob or attack you. Prisons can be a deterrent, but only if they represent three ingredients — time loss, imposed work ethic and regimentation. It is altogether fitting and proper and just to demand punishment befitting the crime and demand some restitution," Richardson said.

There is an answer for our present crime rate, he adds.

1. Hold men accountable for their acts against their fellow-men (punishment fitting for the crime)

2. Return our courts to the arena where rational men seek truth and justice, rather than a legalistic gymnasium where the criminals twist out of the grasp of justice

3. Return our prisons to humane institutions of incarceration and punishment, rather than a comfortable graduate trade school for the criminal community.

4. Reunite the words swift and justice. There can be no justice or public confidence in the system unless it is swift and just.

5. Abolish community-based programs where the felon is kept on the street in the community and return him to walled state institutions.

Richardson states flatly that the reward will be a more civilized and safe community!

Two Men Shot On L.G. Street

Two men were shot in the legs early Sunday morning as they were walking home from a "large Mexican wedding" Sheriff's deputies reported.

The men, Danny Castro, 37 and Manuel Garcia, 33, were shot by an unknown person as they walked southward on the shoulder of the street in the 1800 block of Imperial ave. near San Altos.

Although officers had leads and descriptions, the shooter apparently escaped before they came on the scene.

Witnesses reported that two men became involved in an early morning brawl Saturday on the Fed Mart parking lot at Imperial and San Altos.

Shots were said to have been fired. A nearby cafe operator heard the shots and called the sheriff.

A car answering the description of the one involved in the affair was found in the general neighborhood but the owner was not charged.

The two men are believed to have been shot accidentally.

La Mesa's Mayor Quits; Fine $1,000

La Mesa's mayor, J. Robert Helland, resigned Tuesday just before his penalty phase hearing. He pleaded "no contest" to a charge of violating election campaign laws on August 2.

Following his "no contest" plea, El Cajon Municipal Court Judge Thomas Duffy put Helland on three year's probation and fined him $1,000 for violation of the Waxman-Dymally Disclosure Act which requires reporting of all campaign contributions of $100 or more.

Helland is said to have accepted three $99 checks in order to defeat the purpose of the Act which became effective

Borrowed Car Nets 5 On Marijuana Charges

Sheriff's deputies, investigating the failure of a car borrower to return the vehicle, not only found the car but hit the jack-pot of marijuana and illicit drugs and paraphernalia.

Officers found the car at 9210 Harness st. in Spring Valley. Identifying themselves four times before the door was opened although five people were present, officers suspected that the sound of water flushing and of a window and screen being opened was meaningful.

What was flushed will never be known, but dropped from the window was a tool box containing marijuana and pills.

In the apartment they found more of the same plus some equipment for administering and using narcotics.

Arrested by officers were

Jimmy Lynn Peretti, 22, of the Harness street address; Michael Homer Wood, 18, of 9019 Joan st., Spring Valley; Donald Eugene Rouse, 25, of 8781 Jamacha rd., Spring Valley; Darrell Mitchell Sullivan, 21, of El Cajon and a juvenile female, 17, the wife of one of the group.

Impounded by officers were 12 packages of marijuana debris; 121 amphetamine tablets; 3 spoons and crushed amphetamine powder; two syringes and a needle; two packages of crushed amphetamines; 12 miscellaneous pills; 57 grams of marijuana in a bottle and a roach clip.

The four were scheduled to be arraigned in El Cajon Municipal Court this week while the juvenile was placed in the custody of an adult relative.

RETAIL SITE — A workman pauses on a grating project at the corner of Palm and Imperial sts., at the new Thomas-Fletcher-Nicol Co. Retail Center scheduled for completion later this year. The 20,000 square foot, two-story center is more than 40% leased.

SV Students Start School

Registration of children enrolling for the first time in the elementary and junior high schools in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District began August 26, according to Dr. David D. Pascoe, associate superintendent, instruction. Exceptions were the four Year-Round Schools that are currently in operation (Bancroft Elementary, La Presa Elementary, Rancho Elementary, and La Presa Junior High.)

He became the first elected official in the state to be prosecuted under the new regulation. Helland had served La Mesa as an elected official for 2 years and was re-elected mayor last March and was serving his second term.

Three 15-Year Old Youngsters Charged With Smoking Pot

A disturbance in the Lamp-lighter Trailer Park in Spring Valley School District began August 26, according to Dr. David D. Pascoe, associate superintendent, instruction. The noise of the disturbance was still going on when officers arrived. It came from an auto from which also came the odor of burning marijuana.

Inside were three 15-year old youngsters—two boys and a girl. In the car was 12.4 grams of marijuana and a "hash" pipe.

The youngsters were listed with the probation department and released to their parents.

Incorporation, Annexation Meeting Called

Supervisor Dick Brown will supply the program at a "Town Talk" meeting in Lemon Grove Thursday, September 12, it was announced this week.

The discussion will be Annexation or Incorporation" and results from a feasibility study request made earlier this year by the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting will be at the Lemon Grove Junior High school auditorium at 8 p.m. and is open to the public.

It is not known whether the incorporation, annexation to San Diego or La Mesa, or a status quo recommendation will be made.

Documents, it was said, are still being gathered as backup material for his presentation.

Sports Car Stolen

David L. Smith parked his '63 Chevy Nova Super Sport in its regular parking place at his residence at 3702 Hilltop in Lemon Grove on Tuesday of last week and put the key in his pocket.

The next morning he still had his key but the car was gone. It had been taken between midnight and 6 a.m., he reported to police.

Jim's is the oldest equipment rental firm in Lemon Grove and handles all-types including trucks.

PROTECTION — In earlier days local drivers were complaining about the dangerous crossing at Broadway and Imperial in Lemon Grove. From time to time complaints were accentuated by collisions such as the one below that occurred in 1956.

San Diego, Arizona and Eastern Railway's answer was to order engineers to hoot the engine's horn as it plied through community.

Many residents thought the railroad was overdoing it when they kept the horn blowing for the several minutes it takes the train to go through the business section of Lemon Grove.

This week, automatic traffic barriers are in operation. (Photo alongside)

Innocent Plea Made By L.G. Bomb Suspect

A 45-year old man charged with possession of an explosive device, has pleaded innocent Monday and was ordered to appear in El Cajon Municipal Court Friday for a preliminary hearing on the felony charge.

Alfred Paul Dechaine of 1954 El Prado ave., Lemon Grove, has been charged additionally with a second felony—that of possessing a spiked weapon, according to the district attorney's office.

Dechaine was arrested by sheriff's deputies August 20 after witnesses put him near the scene of the latest explosion of a month-and-a-half series of them.

The explosive devices consisted of a gas-filled balloon which caused more noise than damage. Prior to that police suspected youths setting off firecrackers.

Witnesses led police to the pick-up truck belonging to Dechaine and several unfilled balloons were found on the seat of the vehicle. No one was injured in the blasts which rattled windows although one firm employee claims windows in the nearby establishment were broken by the blast.

Dechaine is employed by a molasses firm.

State Seeks Nominees For Aged Advisors

The California Commission on Aging is soliciting nominations of persons to serve on a statewide advisory body to make recommendations to the Commission regarding the State Plan for Aging.

Assembly Bill No. 2263 requires the new commission to establish a statewide advisory body, representing senior adults. According to the law, "the advisory body is to be composed of one senior consumer from each of the planning areas for aging."

The statewide advisory body will meet at least quarterly to review the State Plan for Programs on Aging under Title III and Title VII of the Older Americans Act of 1965 as amended, which is annually prepared by the California Office on Aging.

California Cites Youth Authority Drug Statistics

California Youth Authority wards with drug abuse problems have increased slightly since the first of the year, although the proportion of young persons committed for drug offenses still decreased by half since the peak year of 1970, a recent report prepared by the CYA indicates.

Depressants and opiates remain the major drugs of abuse for wards, at 34.9 percent and 29.2 percent, respectively, although marijuana abuse has increased to 30.1 percent, the report notes.

Drug abuse patterns vary substantially from one geographic area to another.

Wards from Southern California are increasingly involved in stimulant and hallucinogen abuse, while the proportion of stimulant abusers from the Central Valley and the proportion of hallucinogenic drug abusers from the Bay area have decreased, the statistics show.

The typical drug abuser among CYA wards is a Caucasian male, between the ages of 17 and 21, committed to the YA from Southern California for a property crime.

The report covers all Youth Authority wards, both in institutions and on parole, and includes those committed for offenses other than drug violations who are nevertheless identified as having a drug abuse problem.

their official duties. His ordination took place August 17 and the following day, Ekhaml baptized his six-week old son, Mark, as his first official act.

"Deacons may appear to be something new in the Catholic hierarchical structure, but actually it is a 'rebirth' of a position originally established by the Apostles to deal with material service and restored seven years ago by Pope Paul," Ekhaml said.

"Some parts of the world suffer a serious shortage of priests, which may — in part at least — be balanced by the restoration of deacons as an established branch of the Catholic hierarchy," he continued.

Deacons have all the rights and authority of a priest, except to offer Mass, hear confessions and administer Last Rites.

"We have the authority to perform marriages, baptisms, and burial services," Ekhaml said.

Ekhaml explained that deacons are generally expected to support themselves and their families through daily occupation and to perform their deaconal activities on weekends or at night.

"My main project will be setting up a religious program for the deaf and to insure that an interpreter is available to the deaf for religious services," he said.

A forensic chemist in the Sheriff's crime lab for more than seven years, Ekhaml, his wife and three children, live at 6502 Del Carro Blvd., San Diego. He has been assigned as deacon to the St. Theresa Church in Allied Gardens.

'Project 80' Bible Reading Marathon Terminates At '53'

By Bonita Sparrow

Project 80 is as useful as information, as valuable as time, and it has nothing to do with government, age, or science fairs.

The 80 represents the number of hours it takes to complete the project—reading the entire Bible through from "In the beginning, God..." in Genesis to the final "Amen" in Revelation.

"I read that someone had been challenged to read the entire Bible through in 80 hours," said Mrs. Robert S. Crawford, wife of the pastor at Southern Oaks Baptist Church in Tyler, Texas.

Mrs. Crawford, who is "fully convinced that the best way to teach the Bible to others is to know what it says from the beginning to end," suggested that the church teacher-training class she leads accept the challenge for themselves.

"We called it Project 80," she said. "We made a large poster with individual charts for the 16 class members in the project, put it in the classroom and marked the progress weekly. As individuals finished reading the Bible, they could see how many hours it took."

"Each class member read the Bible at his own pace, just like a library book, not for depth study which came later, but simply for an overall view of the Bible's content."

Mrs. Crawford suggested the class use The Living Bible for Project 80 "because The Living Bible is such an easy paraphrase to read." She completed her project in 53 hours, 12½ minutes.

She described her participation in the project as "one of the most meaningful experiences in my Christian life. I how to live today. And that's why Project 80 is so exciting," she said.

Interested in better Bible understanding, the more you study the Bible, the more you know how to live today. And that's why Project 80 is so exciting," she said.

Al Etheridge, another Project 80 participant, echoed Mrs. Crawford's enthusiasm.

"As many times as I've read the Bible, it wasn't until I read it through in Project 80 that I really began to understand the basic program that God has put forth for man," he said.

Etheridge started Project 80 with his King James Version of the Bible. "Then about halfway through Exodus, I picked up a copy of The Way (the paperback version of The Living Bible) and read it the rest of the way through," he said.

"Before I read this paraphrase, I had never fully understood what the Bible was trying to say. It was like picking up any other history book. You know, you pick up the Bible and learn what has happened to man in the last 4,000 years."

"But when I participated in Project 80 with The Way, I realized that the Old Testament is a book of history and a foundation for the New Testament, which is a book for the present."

"Some portions of the Bible had always seemed mysterious to me, but now I can understand what God is trying to tell us."

Mrs. Crawford highly recommends Project 80 to church groups, or to individuals in-

Missionary Open House Slated

A missionary open-house, for the public, will be presented by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to night in the El Cajon chapel located at 2nd and El Rey in El Cajon. The theme of the hour long open house is centered around the LDS concept of the family and the unique idea of the Family Home Evening.

To vividly demonstrate how a Family Home Evening works, a local family will be presenting one as they would on a regular Monday night, that is they will be involved in gospel discussion, talk over problems, have a recreational activity and refreshments.

The program will consist of the Family Home Evening presentation, the movie "Man's Search for Happiness," and the exhibiting of several displays of the Church which will be set up in the chapel area. Refreshments will be served after the program.

The Social Security System is broke.

It is about two and a half trillion dollars in the hole. This means if no new workers were admitted today, and taxes collected remained the same, and benefits paid only to those already covered, the system would be two and a half trillion dollars short over the next 75 years.

To make it a little more clear, the experts figure the system will be short $20 billion by 1980, and we have a national debt six times larger than estimated.

One Washington legislator, who prefers to remain anonymous, said, "Should the Social Security system be reformed, or be discarded in favor of something else? There's no question, it can't survive long in its present form." It isn't that responsible Ameri-

Is Social Security System Broke?

A Washington writer took a look at the Social Security System and reported what he thought he saw. The material was released by the Liberty League which usually provides a slightly slanted point of view.

This material is not presented as the position of this publication. It is offered as a stimulus to those who test their own beliefs against opposing ones. The Editor.

WASHINGTON, D.C. (LLN-S) — For many years the Social Security system has been considered a sacred cow, untouchable except for increasing benefits and carefully raising taxes. Now it appears something is very wrong with the program.

The Social Security System is broke.

It is about two and a half trillion dollars in the hole. This means if no new workers were admitted today, and taxes collected remained the same, and benefits paid only to those already covered, the system would be two and a half trillion dollars short over the next 75 years.

To make it a little more clear, the experts figure the system will be short $20 billion by 1980, and we have a national debt six times larger than estimated.

One Washington legislator, who prefers to remain anonymous, said, "Should the Social Security system be reformed, or be discarded in favor of something else? There's no question, it can't survive long in its present form." It isn't that responsible Americans haven't tried to do something about the Social Security system. Senator Barry Goldwater advocated a re-examination of the funding of the Social Security system during 1964. His opponents branded the Senator as anti-senior citizen, anti-widow and anti-American. Regardless of sentiment, he was a prophet.

America's Social Security is verging on becoming America's "social insecurity." One reason is that the system is running out of money. The reason it is running out of money to pay benefits is because some Congressmen decided that their pet projects were more important than the Social Security system. Over recent years Congress has spent billions in and for other countries . . . while ignoring responsibilities at home. After spending nearly 10 billion in India, it is difficult not to assume some U. S. dollars were used to develop their nuclear bomb.

Nearly $6 billion were spent in the Mideast, where it appears the area is once again on the verge of renewing hostilities. The U. S. subsidized the discontinuance of poppy farming in Turkey at the cost of millions of dollars. Tens of billions were expended in Southeast Asia and the war goes on.

America's productive capacity and her economic system are capable of maintaining a sufficient cash reserve to pay off Social Security claims, if our legislators will consider the needs of their constituents instead of the rest of the world.

CHP Listens, Too

If you are driving a car with a faulty muffler there is a good chance that you will become an active participant in a noise measurement survey the California Highway Patrol is now conducting on state highways and county roads.

Drivers whose cars, buses, trucks or motorcycles generate noise above legal levels are being stopped and issued citations which require court appearances or written warnings which require necessary repairs be made.

All the CHP's noise teams have been assigned to the project and are operating at predetermined locations that range from the Oregon state line to the Mexican border. Each unit is equipped with a directional microphone that homes in on each passing vehicle and measures the sounds it emits.

The CHP's noise teams have been on the road since 1967 but according to CHP Commissioner Walter Pudinski the current effort is the Patrol's first attempt to identify the statewide scope of California's highway noise problems. The survey is also directed toward identifying geographic areas where abnormal numbers of offending vehicles can be found and specific types of vehicles which are consistent offenders.

All the data obtained will be compared with facts established during a 1973 survey of 24,000 vehicles concentrated in the vicinity of Sacramento. In that survey motorcycles were the worst offenders with one out of 12 exceeding legal limits.

Tigers Find 'Home' In Animal Park

Four Bengal tigers explored their new three-acre home at the San Diego Wild Animal Park last week for the first time.

The male and three female tigers were transferred from the San Diego Zoo, where they have lived since 1961, to the Wild Animal Park late last week. Until recently they had been familiarizing themselves with their indoor sleeping and eating quarters.

Lt. Gen. Victor H. Krulak, USMC (ret.), president of the Zoological Society of San Diego, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jacobs of San Diego opened the last in a series of gates from the tigers' sleeping quarters to their new outdoor enclosure.

"The tigers' new environment at the Wild Animal Park will give them more room to interact as they would in the wild, and we hope that they will eventually reproduce and raise healthy litters of tiger cubs," he added.

Contrary to popular opinion, tigers are among members of the cat family who take easily to water and like to swim, according to Dr. James Dolan, general curator at the Wild Animal Park. A giant Douglas fir log, donated to the Wild Animal Park by the Western Lumber Co., has been placed in the new exhibit so the tigers can sharpen their claws.

All species of tigers are considered endangered, Dolan added, and in their native India Bengal tigers are decreasing in numbers as their hunting grounds are overtaken for domestic use.

Tigers reach maturity at three to five years and in captivity can live as long as 20 years. Males range in weight from 400 to 500 pounds and can reach ten feet in length, although female tigers usually are smaller.

Tigers prey upon game of all kinds including elephants, gaur, buffalo and deer.

As predators, tigers are guided mostly by sight and hearing, rather than smell. Besides being swimmers, they are known to be tree climbers as well.

The original home of tigers is north and central Asia, and the earliest known fossil remains of the animal were discovered on the New Siberian Islands.

HOME COOKED This Week's RECIPE

Cucumbers is just a fancy name for a thick, juicy hamburger patty served on a toasted buttered bun topped with a crunchy cucumber and mayonnaise mixture. This recipe stretches one and one-half pounds of ground meat to serve eight by including fortified high protein cereal. Cucumbers are good at lunchtime, back yard picnic time, midnight supertime and anytime the group wants burgers.

CUCUMBERBURGERS

1 medium-size cucumber 1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt

1 egg 3 cups fortified high protein cereal
1/4 cup milk 1 1/2 lbs. ground beef
1/2 cup finely chopped onion 8 hamburger buns, buttered and toasted
1 1/2 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper

1. Scrub cucumber; do not peel. Cut into quarters lengthwise; remove seedy portion. Grate cucumber coarsely; press in strainer or in paper toweling to remove excess liquid. Stir mayonnaise and garlic salt together in small mixing bowl. Set cucumber and mayonnaise mixture aside for topping.
2. In large mixing bowl, beat egg until foamy. Add milk, onion, salt and pepper and fortified high protein cereal; beat well. Add ground beef; mix only until combined. Shape into 8 patties about 3/4-inch thick.
3. Grill patties 5 inches from source of heat about 5 minutes on each side. Or cook in frypan over medium heat about 5 minutes on each side. Shorten or lengthen cooking time according to preference.
4. Just before serving, combine cucumber and mayonnaise mixture. Place patties on buns. Top each with 2 tablespoons cucumber mixture.

Juveniles Involved In L.G. Burglary

Two juveniles, one a 15- year old girl, the other a 16- year old boy, and a 19-year old man, were apprehended by the Sheriff's deputies Friday after a neighbor's home had been burglarized of items valued at $700. The victim is Terry Lee Robinson, of 2233 Alton place in Lemon Grove. During his absence burglars stole a stereo, camera, binoculars and other items. Sheriff's deputies checking neighborhood resi- dents got admission of guilt from one of the persons named as possible suspects by the victim.

The admission involved the 19-year old Anthony Clark Klymont, of 2221 Alton place, was detained as an adult. When four grams of mari- juana was found in his room, he was arrested.

He was arraigned in El Ca- jon Municipal Court Monday and preliminary hearing has been set for September 9. The items taken from Rob- inson's home were recovered.

Beer Cans Now Worth 15c Pound Aluminum can collectors are getting more money for their recyclables, and officials at Adolph Coors Co. said this week the added cash incentive has increased activity at many Coors "cash-for-cans" redem- tion centers. All Coors distributors throughout 11 western states boosted to 15 cents a pound the price they pay for the re- turn of aluminum beer and soft drink containers. That was a nickel increase over the 10 cents a pound they had previously paid. Reports from the 167 Coors distributors compiled from June 17 through July 14, show a record 84.9 million cans weighing 3,540,571 pounds were returned for recycling. Participating individuals and groups were paid $531,085 for the cans at the new payout rate. Total collections this year amount to 20,420,509 pounds, a 12 percent increase over the 17,903,620 pounds recovered for the same period last year. A Coor's collection station is Dan McKinney Co., a Coor's distributor at 5525 Market st. near Euclid and 94. The sta- tion is open weekdays 10-2.

Suprvisors Hear County Growth Policy Set Forth

San Diego County Board of Supervisors will hold a meet- ing today at 7:30 p.m. to dis- cuss a proposed initial growth policy. The meeting will be in the North Board Chambers, 1600 Pacific Highway, San Di- ego. Representatives from Sed- way/Cooke will be present at the meeting today to discuss the proposed policy with the County Supervisors. Interest- ed persons are invited to at- tend and present their ideas about a growth policy for San Diego County.

The proposed growth policy has been designed for the County's unincorporated areas by Sedway/Cooke, Urban Plan- ners and Designers, a San Francisco firm.

While the proposed policy deals with the unincorporated areas, an effort has been made to establish a policy which is consistent with the emerging growth policies of other jurisdictions, according to a report by Sedway/Cooke.

The proposed growth policy has two major goals. The first goal deals with the location and timing of growth while the second goal deals with the impact of growth.

Ten objectives are also in- cluded and are concerned with issues such as availability of urban services, presence of nat- ural hazards and conditions of the local economic environ- ment.

According to Sedway/Cooke, the proposed growth policy does not constitute a complete regional growth policy, nor does it provide the final an- swer to growth management in the County.

The strongest cartel of the summer has been booked for Sunday at the bullring by the sea, Plaza Monumental de Ti- juana starting at 4 p.m.

Ace matadors Manolo Mar- tinez, Eloy Cavazos, and Curro Rivera will each face two bulls of the top-rated ranch, San Miguel de Mimihauapam.

Many taurine observers be- lieve that Mimihauapam is Mexico's best bull ranch. And most agree that the three to- reros are in bullfighting's first echelon. Because of the strength of this cartel, and the Labor Day weekend, a large crowd is expected in the 22,000-seat arena.

Each matador has faced six bulls at Tijuana this summer, with varying success.

Martinez, 28, of Monterrey passes the bull with his left hand as well as his right.

Cavazos, who turned 24 in August, is also of Monterrey. He is short — only 5'2" but he is noted for his sword work.

Rivera, 22, of Mexico City, has attracted attention with the muleta and cape.

Tickets are available in San Diego at the U. S. Grant Travel Agency and in Tijuana at Caesar's Hotel Lobby.

Doubleheader Listed At South Bay Track

A doubleheader program of action packed Street Stock Car racing, plus a gigantic slam-bang Destruction Derby highlights Sunday evening's racing program at the South Bay Park Speedway in Chula Vista.

Racing Director Don Basile expects a 60-car field of the night's 10-event Street Car racing card on the 1/4 mile clay oval. Another 20 to 25 cars will take part in the extra added Destruction Derby.

Racing starts at 7:30 p.m., preceded by time trials at 6 p.m.

Scheduled to head the stock car racing field are point lead- ers Johnny Silvas of Spring Valley; Craig Runyan of La Mesa, and Pat Peru of San Diego. The trio, all first year drivers at South Bay, have been swapping wins in the weekly Sunday night events.

The weekly Street Stock Car races are producing the wild- est stock racing ever viewed in San Diego Basile said. Fields include, Chevrolets, Dodges, Pontiacs, Fords, Mercurys, Buicks, Mustangs, Cameros, Oldsmobiles, Lincolns, and even an old Studebaker.

Gates open at 6 p.m. when 5,000 general admission seats go on sale. Children under 8 years of age are free.

Davies also announced that he is "gaining ground" on a proposed bout between Jerry Quarry and San Diego's Ken- ny Norton to be staged at the Sports Arena.

"I have offered $50,000 to each fighter for the match," Davies said, "and both parties appear to be very interested. Now all we can do is sit tight and wait."

Consumers Use Less Gas

If California's service sta- tions stocked up on gasoline for an expected summer driv- ing surge by the state's motor- ists, it didn't show up in the gasoline distribution figures for last month.

Statistics reported by Board of Equalization Member John W. Lynch show July 1974 fuel distribution down 1.3 percent from May, and down 2.6 per- cent from a year ago. Quarter- ly figures for the second quar- ter of 1974, while up 14.2 per- cent over the first quarter, are down 4.0 percent from the second quarter of 1973.

Two Bikes Stolen

Two Schwinn bicycles val- ued at $300 were taken from the locked garage at the home of Joan E. Wimberly, 761 Paraiso st., Spring Valley, on Sunday.

Police could find no evi- dence of pry marks.

Not much, but he did put a "win" on his record.

In a three-round amateur bout, Manny Lujan's younger brother, Johnny, did very well to earn a draw over Ciferino Gonzales. Lujan had been bill- ed as another Manuel but he needs more seasoning before a comparison can be made. More experience is needed by Gonzales as well.

Kniesel Still Hopeful on Jump

Experts in the world of space electronics claim that Evel Kniesel must attain a takeoff speed of 250 miles with his "Sky Cycle X-2" to make it to the other side of the Snake River Canyon.

Kniesel's attempt to jump the canyon will be shown on large screen color closed cir- cuit television at the Commu- nity Concourse's Golden Hall in San Diego.

The two-hour show will start at 1 p.m. on Sunday, September 8. Prior to Evel's leap over the 5,000 ft. canyon, six daredevil type acts will be telecast.

The outspoken, flamboyant ex-rodeo cowboy is confident his one million dollar cycle will churn up enough steam to give him the neces- sary speed for a successful takeoff on the 108 foot ramp. Seats are reserved and priced at $10 and $8.

Ramona Handicap is Track Feature Sunday

The filly and mare cham- pionship of the summer sea- son at Del Mar will be de- termined Sunday when the 17th running of the $40,000- added Ramona Handicap is presented at a mile and one- eighth on the infield grass course.

The day before, on Saturday, will be the $20,000-added Chula Vista Handicap, a one-mile affair on the main track for older horses who are non-win- ners of a first prize of $12,500 this year.

An outstanding field of fill- ies and mares is awaiting the Ramona Handicap, a race which over the years has been won by such outstanding dis- taff competitors as Honeys Gem, Linita, Fun House, Jal- ousie II, Desert Trial, Hi Q, Street Dancer and, a year ago, Minstrel Miss.

Among those being pointed for the Ramona 'Cap is Chile- an-bred Tizna, who last winter scored an upset in Santa Anita Park's invitational Santa Margarita after previously winning the seven-furlong Santa Monica Handicap. Winless at Hollywood Park, Tizna was freshened by Henry Moreno and recently turned in a prom- ising effort in a six-furlong sprint in which he closed strongly.

Spring Valley Girls Are Bobby Sox Champs

Spring Valley All Stars in The minor All Stars from a come-from-behind series, won San Diego also had a great deal of success in the minor pionship Thursday night at Buena Park by beating Clairemont in a double header, by El Cajon and Navajo were identical scores, 4-0 and 4-0. Clairemont entered the tournament a strong favorite and won every game — until the team matched up with Spring Valley.

The Stallard sisters, stalwarts of the All Stars pitching staff, were responsible for the wins. Dorene Stallard, 14, gave Clairemont its first loss in the tourney by pitching a shutout while her team made four runs in the first inning of the first game.

Her sister, Jenny, 13, then duplicated her effort in the second game with her team making two runs in each of the second and third innings. Both teams were errorless in the two games.

Spring Valley was but one game from being out of the tourney last week after losses moved them into a do-or-die game in the second tier.

Paul Stark, a publicist for the team, filed this report:

By Paul Stark

In the 13-year history of the national tournament no team from San Diego has ever won it until Spring Valley did. Clairemont made it a 1-2 sweep for San Diego in the tournament as they claimed the runner-up spot.

The All Stars had staked a 7-2 lead going into the fourth Dorene Stallard to a 7-2 lead inning but Clairemont got to going into the sixth inning but East Anaheim got to her for six runs on nine hits in the lead and went on to snap the All Stars' ten-game winning streak 10-8.

The most damaging error came when Carol Garrard lifted a fly ball to Beth Kelly in right field who dropped it for an error. The last three runs of the inning scored after the error.

The All Stars scored seven of their eight runs on ten hits in the first three innings of the game. Dorene Stallard drove in two runs with a first inning double while Jenny had a two run double in the second to account for four of the seven runs.

Other Games

In other third round games Lemoore eliminated Tri City 11-6, N. Huntington Beach eliminated Fountain Valley 8-2, El Segundo eliminated Lemoore 13-2 and N. Huntington Beach eliminated Newbury Park 4-3.

Wednesday, El Segundo nipped N. Huntington Beach 7-6 for the right to play Spring Valley again that night. The All Stars on a bases loaded walk to Cindy Carroll which scored Wendy Freed nipped El Segundo 5-4 for the right to play Clairemont for the tournament championship the next night.

Miss Freed led off the seventh inning with an infield single, went to second on a single up the middle by Kim Hilton, Mona Shoemaker sent Freed to third with a single to left and scored when Carroll walked on a 3-2 count.

Wins Two

Spring Valley, Thursday, didn't have trouble disposing of Clairemont for the tournament championship as they scored two 4-0 wins. In the first game Dorene Stallard fired a three hitter, fanned four and didn't walk a batter and in the second game Jenny fired a two hitter, fanned nine and walked three for the win.

In the first game the All Stars scored all of their runs in the first inning as they bunched five hits, including run scoring doubles by Jenny Stallard and Rhonda McClellan, for their four runs.

The most serious threat against Dorene Stallard came in the sixth inning when Kerry Himmelsbach led off the inning with a grounder to Paula Peretti at second who let the ball go through her for an error and then Stallard hit Yo Arvizu.

Carol Garrard then grounded out to Peretti to advance both runners.

Hadl Comes Home Saturday; Prothro Says Rams 'Best Team'

Johnny Hadl, everybody's favorite football pitcher, returned to San Diego Stadium for 302 yards and two touchdowns for a 35-13 victory over the Chargers.

At Monday's regular meeting of Sportscasters / Sports-writers Charger Coach Tommy Prothro viewed this year's edition of the Rams as "the best team at present."

Mayhem starts at 8 p.m. with the Rams boasting a 3-1 record against Prothro's Chargers 2-2.

Hadl still maintains his home nearby in sunny El Cajon and will be making his first San Diego appearance since he was traded to Los Angeles in 1973 for Coy Bacon and running back Duane Thomas. Hadl built up a vast list of admirers during his 11 years as a Charger.

Saturday's game will be broadcast by Mike Smith and Al Couppee via television 39 on a tape replay Sunday at 5. It will be radiocast by Andy Musser and Earl Faison on KSDO and the Charger network at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Los Angeles leads the NFL series 1-0 and the pre-season series 4-3. The Rams won last summer at the Coliseum 30-17.

Charger Memories

Head bowed, John Hadl approached the tunnel entrance into the Charger dressing room at new San Diego Stadium. He was greeted by a fan's angry taunt, "Hadl, you bum, we're wearing the blue uniforms."

Hadl did not have to be reminded that under a merciless assault by the Fearsome Four-some of the Rams, he had thrown three interceptions and had been sacked eight times in only the first half. Shockingly, the Rams led 43-0 at halftime and won 50-7 in the inaugural Charger-Ram game in the summer of 1967.

Hadl and the Chargers got their revenge when the Rams returned to San Diego in the double to right but Peretti leaped high for the catch and fired to third to double Himmelsbach off third.

In the second game, besides pitching Spring Valley to the championship, Jenny Stallard also went 2-3 and drove in Wendy Freed twice with a single and a double. Denise Christensen and Susan Hobb drove in the other two runs for the all stars.

The championship team consisted of Cindy Carroll, Denise Christensen, Wendy Freed, Kim Hilton, Susan Hobb, Beth Hubbard, Beth Kelly, Rhonda McClellan, Leslie Mello, Michelle Moore, Paula Peretti, Mona Shoemaker, Cindy Smith, Dorene and Jenny Stallard and Carol Oftedahl and chaparone Georgia Seal.

Two Charged With Possession Of Marijuana

Sheriff's deputies arrested two Spring Valley youths Friday after they observed them in a yellow van exceeding the speed limit in a Spring Valley residential area.

Officers smelled the strong odor of marijuana smoke and observed a silver clip usually used for smoking marijuana roaches dangling from the belt loop of one of the occupants.

The search turned up 19 grams of marijuana in a plastic baggie, a "hash" pipe and a leather pouch containing marijuana residue.

Charged with possession of marijuana and paraphernalia were James Henry Jones, 20, of 1270 Darby st. and Gene Raymond Buchman, 23, of 1245 Helix st., both addresses being in Spring Valley.

Jones is unemployed. Buchman is employed by a kennel firm.

Boys 14 and 15 In 'Pot' Charge

Two Lemon Grove youths were referred to the probation department and released to their parents after officers, in an interrogation near midnight Saturday, smelled the odor of marijuana smoke on their breath.

They found in their search 26½ grams of marijuana and 25 amphetamine tablets and paraphernalia for using the substances.

The two were males; one 14 and the other 15.

UC Circular Tells How to Prune Citrus

Citrus trees can look like Christmas trees. Or they can line up into a solid hedgerow. The shape all depends on the kind of pruning performed.

Shapes, sizes, and effects of pruning are detailed in a new University of California publication: "Pruning Citrus Trees." It is available without charge at UC Farm Advisor (Cooperative Extension) offices in most counties.

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

It all started going downhill when they got the vote. That was 54 years ago last Monday. And in that half century plus four, women have pushed man off his rightful place in the pedestal of the family in the living-room and into the kitchen helping with the dishes.

Man has also been shoved out from under the car, both the fixin' of it and the drivin' of it, to ride as a passenger or operate as told. Now-a-days, when some dandy tries to sell his girl they stopped because the gidget on the hano is kaput, the dumb doll in all probability will get out, lift the hood and fix it.

No longer do women stay at home, taking care of house, children, garden and flowers. Dinner is not on the table when the head of the house returns from a hard day on the job, and a few beers with the boys.

In fact, women do not even stay at home anymore. Slowly, but surely, ever since they got the vote, women have been getting out of the house and taking jobs.

And they're not satisfied with the traditional role jobs either. They don't want to be just mothers, nurses, school teachers, maids, waitresses and hair dressers. Oh no. Not today.

They want to be policemen (sorry, police-persons), fire-persons, airline pilot-persons, bank presidents, auto mechanics, combat troop-persons, steel workers and office holders. And just because they earn their money, they want equal pay.

And when they bring it home, do they hand it over to their husbands and better-halves? They do not. In all likelihood, it's the man who turns over his salary because women have been successful in spreading the rumor that they handle family funds better than men.

And now it's athletics. Women want to play sports. Not just tennis and badminton, swimming and skating. Now they want to play real rugged sports like basketball, baseball, soccer, gymnastics, golf, volleyball, track and field and fast pitch softball.

But this time they've gone too far. The gals bit off more than they can handle. First, to have any chance of success, women as a group, must have talent. They must be willing to sacrifice. They'll have to provide their own coaches. And they'll have to work.

Success in athletics comes only to those who start soon and work long.

They'll have to have youth programs, getting youngsters interested in sports early and convince them to give it their all. Only then will female girls of the opposite sex know the satisfaction of athletic honors won in combat. Only then will women of any age know the magnanimous exultation of victory.

Only when girls and other females can come from behind, overtaking an opponent better placed, winning against odds, to claim a title or championship, will they earn their place in athletics.

Ed's note: The Spring Valley Bobby Sox All Stars, coming from the down bracket where a single loss would eliminate them, shut out the Clairemont All-Stars twice with identical 4-0 scores to win the National Bobby Sox title Thursday at Buena Park, Calif.)

How about that? The next thing you know they'll want to become sports writers, too. Maybe take my job. And all because of that damn vote.

Registration Aid Offered By Deddeh

77th District Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh is urging all unregistered voters to sign up.

Statewide figures indicate that five million eligible Californians will not be able to vote in the November 5 general election because they have not yet registered.

"Some people seem to feel it isn't worth their time to vote," Deddeh said, "But this year, more than ever, everyone's participation in the election is of vital importance."

"This year, voters will be asked to make several key decisions which could have direct effect on all of our lives for years to come. And the course the State will take will be determined in a large part by the number of people who participate in the coming election," he said.

Included are measures affecting school building construction and the Board of Regents of U.C., residency requirements for local employment, renters relief and other tax reform proposals, voting rights, the Public Utilities Commission and housing finance.

"One factor in the number of unregistered Californians may be that voters are not familiar with eligibility requirements and registration procedures," he said.

People must register if they did not vote or have moved since the November 1972 general election (McGovern vs. Nixon), if they want change their party affiliation or have changed their name (e.g. a woman who has married since the last general election and wishes to reregister under her married name).

The Registrar of Voters address is P.O. Box 23044, San Diego 92123.

Food Stamp Recipients May Have To Join Labor Organization

Under a proposed regulation announced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, so as to be received not later than September 20. Comments received will be open to public inspection.

The regulations would not require the recipient to join a company union.

In order to participate in the food stamp program all recipients, with certain exceptions, must register for and accept employment. Current regulations, however, permit a recipient to refuse a job in which he is required to join, resign from, or refrain from joining any legitimate labor organization. The proposed amendment is in line with regulations for the Work Incentive Program of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Public comments are invited on the proposed regulation. Written comments may be mailed or delivered to Royal Shipp, Acting Director, Food Stamp Division, Food and Nu-

Narcotics Theft Totals $440

Narcotics valued at $440 were taken from the Valley Pharmacy, 4003 Citradora, Spring Valley on August 19 when burglars jimmied the back door of a doctor's office adjacent to the pharmacy.

A nurse, coming to work, discovered the door pried open at 4005 Citradora and also found a 14"x20" hole broken in the wall that separated the two establishments.

The establishments are side by side in the building.

Answer Phone Stolen

When Karen Patricia Lovell returned from work last Monday, she discovered her home at 8822 Jaylee st. in Spring Valley had been burglarized and that a tape recorder and a phone answering device had been stolen.

The total loss, not including damage to the screen through which the intruder entered, was $550, she told sheriff's deputies.

Marijuana Plants Bring Charges

The Sheriff's department charged a Lemon Grove man with possession and cultivation of marijuana on Tuesday last week.

Officers reported that marijuana plants were growing in the yard of a residence at 7545 Mt. Vernon street and that the plants were screened from view by a green blanket hung from a fence.

On further investigation of officers found 90 grams of marijuana inside the residence. Two charges — possession of marijuana and cultivation of marijuana — were made against Donald Lewis Carroll, 24, who lives at the Mt. Vernon street address, deputies reported.

Safe Loss is $300

$300 in cash and checks of an undetermined value were taken from the safe at the business firm of A. L. Greenbaum Co., 7704 North ave., in Lemon Grove.

Greenbaum employees told sheriff's deputies that the safe was locked and that only three persons knew the combination. A door of the firm's warehouse had been pried open during the night of August 19 to gain entry. The safe was opened by combination and was not damaged.

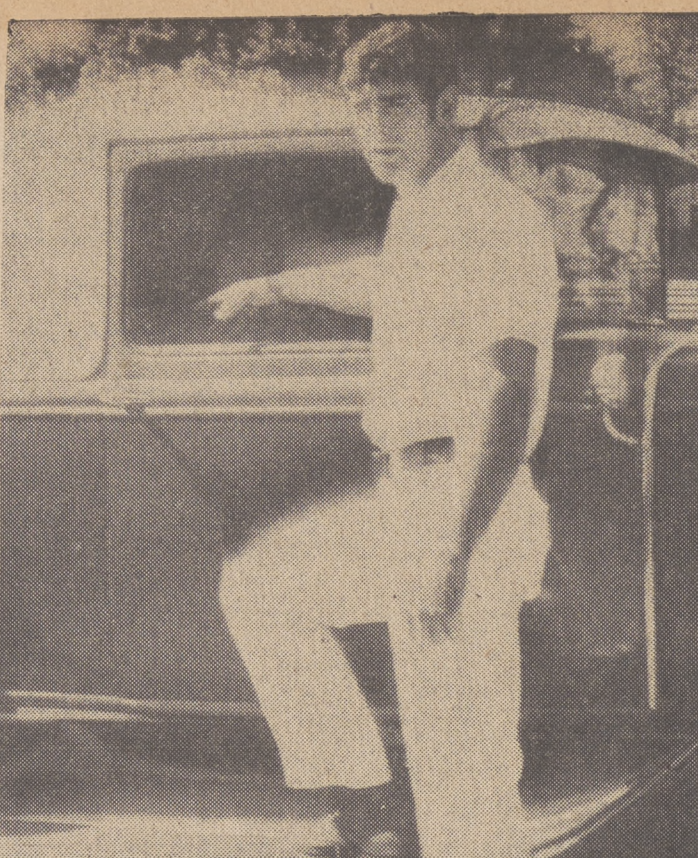

The firm is in the wholesale floor-covering business.

CB Radio Taken

A citizen's band radio was taken from the 1974 Chevy pickup truck at the home of Ernie W. Webb of 9731 St. George st. in Spring Valley last Monday night.

The auto's wind wing had been pried open to get to the equipment.

The loss was $250, Webb reported to sheriff's deputies.

GROVE COUPE — Bruce Herzog, 2175 Ensenada st., Lemon Grove, stands with his 1930 Model A Ford. Herzog says "I got the Sports Coupe about 8 years ago. My father thought it would be 'pretty good local transportation', especially during high school. It has been that." Bruce drives the car frequently and considers it to be in good running order. Herzog purchased the Ford from a private party through a newspaper ad — a pretty fair way, we agree, to run into some good local transportation. The automobile is not for sale.

Marijuana Brings Charge

Sheriff's deputies reported that the investigation of a youth who appeared to be in a state of euphoria led to a charge of possession of marijuana against Paul Sandora, 19, of 9235 Brookside circle, Spring Valley.

Officers reported that they noticed the youth on the property of a gasoline filling station at 9108 Campo road at 11:30 p.m. last week on Tuesday.

They reported he possessed three hand-rolled cigarettes of marijuana in his pocket and a clip for their use.

The sale will close at 6 p.m. Friday, September 6 at a dinner function on the Mt. Miguel quad celebrating the opening of the 1974-75 school year.

Lemon Grove Contractor Seeks World Race Fame

Mario Alesi of Lemon Grove, winner of his first off-road racing title last month in Baja California, is one of the early entrants in Mickey Thompson's SCORE "AC-Delco World Championship" off-road races to be held Sept. 27-29 at Riverside International Raceway.

Alesi, a 24-year-old plumbing contractor, at 8161 Broadway in Lemon Grove, only began racing last season, co-driving a Ford Courier in the mini-pickup class of the grueling sport, still he was the class winner in Thompson's SCORE "Delco Baja International" at Ensenada.

His father, Peter Alesi also of Lemon Grove, was co-driver in the 400 mile Mexican race. Last June, in his only other race on Mexican soil, Alesi finished second in his class in the Baja 500.

Although his father will not be a driver in the Riverside event, off-road racing continues to be a family affair for the Alesi clan, with wife Diane and mother Rita serving as scorers and pit assistants.

In contrast to other races over desert terrain, the AC-D

'Safer California' Post Goes to D.A. Ed Miller

San Diego County District Attorney Edwin L. Miller Jr. has been named Chairman of the Advisory Committee on Law Enforcement Technology and Support Services for Project Safer California.

The appointment was announced by Lou Palumbo, Executive Director of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning.

The Committee will establish standards and goals in areas such as evidence technicians, crime laboratories, police uniforms, firearms, radio equipment and information systems.

Miller's committee is one of 17 established in the project to establish standards and goals for the California criminal justice system.

"We need to have comprehensive statewide standards on things such as the kinds of uniforms and firearms available to police agencies, and the kind of radio equipment to be used in congested urban areas," said Palumbo.

"Justice is not something a judge metes out to a convicted criminal," he said in explaining Project Safer California.

"Justice is more than that. Justice is the part of the quality of our way of life that results from the fair and impartial administration of equitable laws. It involves both the rights of the accused and the rights of the victim.

"And, in a larger sense, it involves the rights of all of us to live and work without fear, to walk freely and safely through the streets of our communities."

To achieve this goal, statewide advisory committees representing professionals from all parts of the criminal justice system and citizens at large will meet throughout this summer to adopt specific goals for every aspect of the system, and to define performance standards to measure progress toward these goals.

There will be 17 advisory committees, concentrating on standards and goals for a specific part of the criminal justice system, but each committee will have representatives from all parts of the system for a broad perspective.
